Claudio Catalán obtained his law degree from Instituto Tecnológico de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey in 2024. He has specialized in antitrust law, actively participating in merger notifications, investigations into absolute and relative monopolistic practices, and managing requests for opinions before the Federal Antitrust Commission (COFECE) and the Federal Telecommunications Institute (IFT).

He has also contributed to various amparo proceedings against resolutions issued by COFECE, achieving favorable outcomes in strategic matters for his clients.

In 2023, Claudio was part of the team that won first place in the Moot Comp, a prestigious oral hearing competition aimed at promoting the study of antitrust law among law and economics students.
